

HR Manager

European Headquarters, Luton

£55,000 - £70,000 + bonus, car/car allowance and excellent benefits

Anritsu Corporation has been a provider of innovative communications solutions for more than 110 years and now serves customers from offices around the world. Following its acquisition of NetTest in 2005, it has expanded to provide complete solutions for existing and next-generation communication systems. The recently combined companies sell in over 90 countries worldwide with approximately 4,000 employees.

As HR Manager reporting to the Managing Director for Europe, you will lead a team responsible for providing a professional HR service to all UK employees and managers. In addition you will act as Business Partner to the General Manager, EMEA. You will sit on the Global HR Committee and be involved in Pan European issues. A key project will be the review and delivery of role benchmarking and compensation schemes across EMEA.

Well educated, CIPD qualified, you'll have at least 5 years experience in a similar environment, dealing with a varied client base from a mix of cultures, with exposure to EMEA. In depth knowledge of compensation and benefits schemes and developing competitive pay structures is essential. With a sound knowledge of UK and EU employment legislation, you will be a self motivated individual with proven skills in project management, analysis and planning with an eye for detail. With previous team management experience you will have outstanding communication skills whilst having the ability to handle issues in a diplomatic and tactful manner.

To apply please forward your CV with details of your current package to our retained consultant Catherine Clayton at HRI, cv@hri.co.uk quoting reference CC1673.
