HR Business Partners

South East/South West/Midlands and Home Counties

Salary up to £60,000 per annum + benefits to include car allowance & bonus

At Royal Mail our HR Business Partners play a pivotal role, working alongside Business Leaders in driving major structural change within our nationally recognised and established brand.

We offer HR professionals genuinely influential and results driven roles in a highly dynamic environment where you can really make a difference.

As a HR Business Partner, you'll be expected to coach the senior operations team, delivering expert knowledge, skills and interventions in order to influence, challenge and support the achievement of business and people strategy.

Sharing accountability with the Management Teams, you will deliver significant organisational and cultural change.

You will be a CIPD qualified Senior HR Practitioner with a strong track record of delivering change in a large, complex, unionised organisation. You will be able to combine excellent influencing and communication skills along with the passion and resilience required to achieve results. In addition, a deep technical knowledge of all aspects of HR is essential.

There is also a requirement for Assistant HR Business Partners in the Midlands and South West. Salary circa £30,000 + Benefits.

If you have the drive to help make this challenge your own, please send your CV to our retained consultants HRi at cv@hri.co.uk Please state your preferred location, current salary and for HR Business Partner roles please quote ref RM1 and Assistant HR Business Partner roles quote ref RM2.
